SUSAN BURRELL

Susan is a feisty scorpio (she was even born with the red hair to back it up!) who has navigated life by learning how to listen within, to that Divine urge that keeps pointing her in the direction of her life's purpose, even when she can't see the road. She is an intuitive healer and spiritual guide in the crossroads of life. Susan has been counseling and supporting people in transforming from the inside out for over 25 years. Her methods are proven as she herself has lived this journey to empowerment.

Susan hosts a thought provoking podcast on the eWomen Podcast Network called Empowering Chats with Susan Burrell. She is also featured on Insight Timer a meditation app and she is the author of Live Your Empowered Life! A 30-Day Journey Book.
